What is the link?

Each of the images in the table has a link to our current topic.

Can you explain how it links?

| Image   | Link to our topic (Human Migration) |
|---|-------------------------------------|
|  A photograph of Mo Farah, a British long-distance runner, wearing a white athletic singlet with 'GREAT BRITAIN' and 'FARAH' printed on it, and 'TDK' as a sponsor. He is smiling and has his hands on his head. |                                     |
|  An illustration of a red and white magnet with a horseshoe shape, positioned next to a cluster of small, colorful houses with orange roofs, symbolizing attraction or migration.                                |                                     |
|  A photograph of a young girl with a sad expression, resting her chin on her hands, looking out of a window.  |                                     |

Retrieval Relay Race

After Lesson 6

In the first box, write as much as you can remember about our topic. In the second box, one of your peers must write what they can recall about our topic but they cannot repeat any of the information from your first box! The third box needs to be completed by someone else but again this must include new information and the same for the final box.

Retrieval Link Grid

Extension

Task: Make links between the boxes. Make them the same colour if they link and explain to a partner how they relate.

|                |                         |                                |
|----------------|-------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Push           | No choice to leave      | Voluntary migrant              |
| Forced migrant | Pull                    | The country a migrant goes to. |
| A job          | Better transport links  | Employment                     |
| Host country   | Makes a choice to leave | Lack of job opportunities      |
